

A WALK THROUGH HISTORY

OVERDOSE, RECOVERY & REMEMBRANCE

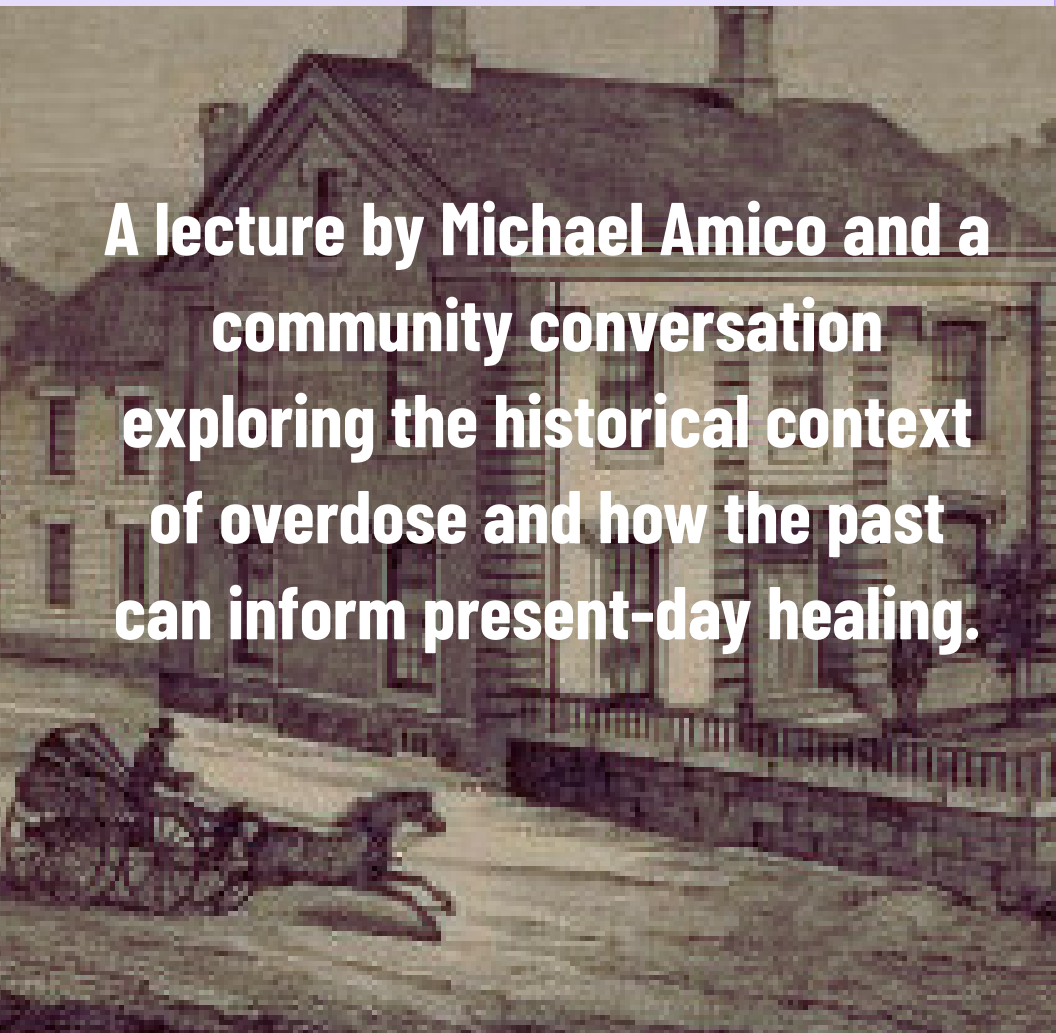

OPEN HOUSE OF HISTORY | 908 MAIN ST, WALDOBORO

A two-part gathering to explore overdose, recovery, and remembrance through Waldoboro's emotional history and a display of Images honoring lives lost to substance use, provided by Maine Sharing.

PART I:

OVERDOSE, RECOVERY & THE PAST

FRIDAY, AUGUST 22 | 6:00-7:00 PM

A lecture by Michael Amico and a community conversation exploring the historical context of overdose and how the past can inform present-day healing.

PART II:

OVERDOSE, RECOVERY & THE PRESENT

SATURDAY, AUGUST 23 | 5:00-7:30 PM

A community cookout and live music, followed by a short walk for dessert and reflection, and concluding with a sharing circle, connecting past with present.

"Overdose, Recovery & The Present" is sponsored by Newcastle Publick House

This program is presented by Open House of History and Studio B
