

PUDDLE DOCK VILLAGE FESTIVAL

ART & RESILIENCE: A SHARED EXPERIENCE

Sunday, July 13, 3:00-5:00 PM

Alna Meetinghouse
1789 Alna Road, Alna, ME

How can creativity help us carry grief and grow through adversity? Spend an afternoon with artists, musicians, and writers sharing art, music and writing shaped by struggle.

Participants

Laetitia Brundage musician

Cody Mower
writer

Keith Plummer artist

Queenearth artist

Maya Williams writer

Program

3:00-3:10

Welcome and introduction from Peter Bruun, Executive Director Studio B.

3:10-4:00

Laetitia Brundage, Cody Mower, Keith Plummer, Queenearth, and Maya Williams each process challenges and trauma through their art. With 10 minutes each, they share their art, music or writing, and briefly share their stories of art for healing.

4:00-4:45

The five presenters join one another on stage for a conversation with the audience moderated by Peter Bruun.

4:45-5:00

Visit the presenters at their merch tables, stop by the resource tables, then head to the Puddle Dock Village School for the Keith Plummer closing reception.

Free and open to the public

PUDDLEDOKKFESTIVAL.ORG

studio.b

Puddle Dock Village Festival is a Studio B project